

Celebrating
350 years
1670-2020

Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh

LEAVING A GIFT
IN YOUR WILL

1670 CIRCLE

ALL LIFE DEPENDS ON PLANTS

Our founders recognised this fundamental truth when they established the Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh in 1670.

Over the years, our work has expanded, from building our globally significant collection of plants, to exploring, conserving and explaining the world of plants for a better future. You can help us continue this centuries-long legacy for future generations by pledging a gift in your Will to the Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh.

All legacy pledgers become members of the 1670 Circle. Established in the Garden's 350th anniversary year, the 1670 Circle celebrates planned giving, offering its members insight on the Garden's future and opportunities to experience our work and expertise first-hand.

“When I visit the Botanic I never want to leave. But when I’m no longer here I want to do a little bit to help keep these gardens as beautiful and as useful as they are today. That’s why I’m leaving a gift in my Will to the Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh.”

Jan from Edinburgh, Legacy Pledger

1763

Garden relocated to Leith

1967

Opening of the Front Range Glasshouses

2020

350th Anniversary & Launch of the 1670 Circle

1820

Final move to the Garden's current site at Inverleith

1670

Scotland's first physic garden founded at Holyrood House

CONTINUE OUR LEGACY FOR THE
NEXT 350 YEARS & BEYOND

Celebrating
350
1670 2020

Royal
Botanic Garden
Edinburgh

For more information about the 1670 Circle

Visit rbge.org.uk/1670circle Call 0131 248 2987 Email 1670circle@rbge.org.uk

Personal data The personal data we hold will be used by the RBGE, or other parties acting under the instructions of the RBGE for a range of activities if you have consented to them. These include 1670 Circle administration, sending publications and information, offering benefits and services, organising events, and in our fundraising and volunteering programmes. If you'd like to find out more, you can view our privacy notice. If you wish to update your details or how we contact you please email 1670circle@rbge.org.uk or write to us at the address above or call us on 0131 552 7171.

Read our full privacy notice at rbge.org.uk/privacy-notice/development-privacy-notice.